A yearbook, in many ways, can be considered a photo album. It contains many pictures of everyone who was in high school at that time. A few years down the road, this Manhigan will be picked up and read almost as though it was a comic book. Looking back on the "trends" and things that were in fashion during the 1993-94 school year will differ from those five years from now.

Time is constantly in motion, it never stops, and with the constant movement of time comes change. Change is subtle at first, then after time has passed, it becomes overwhelming. It is hard to realize how much things change until two different time spans are compared. At Mansfield Senior High School, we have gone through many changes. Most of the changes have been for the best.

One of the latest "trends" is individuality. People are free to express themselves in almost any way they choose. Because of the many personality differences, the approaches to life also differ. Some people feel that college is the best choice for them, and others feel that a technical school or branch of the service is better for them.

Whatever path is taken, we want to wish everyone the best of luck. Everyone deserves success as long as they try their hardest to get what they want.

A lot of time, effort, and hard work was put into this yearbook for your enjoyment. We hope you enjoy this yearbook and all of the memories the Manhigan staff helped to put together.

Congratulations and Good Luck

The Many Faces Of The Class Of 1994

"Is this apron me or what?"

"Say what?"

"So are you going to try some of my apple pie or what?"

"Did I remember to put on my deodorant?"

Chandra makes a speech in front of the school about why she wanted the levy passed.

Obie, the class president, tells the student body what school will be like if everyone doesn't pitch in to help.

As seniors, the lessons we have learned are the ones that will help us succeed in life. Through all of our many trials and errors, we have become better people. The future lies within us. Without all of our dreams and expectations, we will be nothing. As we take our separate paths, we will always remember the incidents and people that shaped our lives. We will all succeed in life as long as we try hard and do our best.

One Moment

Prom 1994

On Saturday, May 14, the senior prom was held at the Mansfield Commerce Center. The theme, "One Moment in Time," was carried out by the use of time pieces. The colors, teal and silver, were selectively picked out by the senior class officers.

After prom the seniors headed out for a wild night on the town. They kicked off their shoes and had a few laughs along with a few falls at the Coliseum Roller Skating Rink. After defeating that obstacle, the seniors went looking for another one. They found it at Park Lanes. They participated in many activities, from playing pool to bowling to playing video games. It is easy to say that Prom 1994 was one moment in time that will never be forgotten!

A moment of relaxation.

My, my, my!

Steph and Jerry take a brief moment to pose.

This way for a night to remember . . .

Hurry up and take the picture!

A much needed breath of fresh air.

in Time

The night has only just begun.

Let's sit this one out.

Where is the party?

Dan and Mindy make a special appearance.

Enjoy the night!

Are we having fun yet?

Busted!

Honey, look over there, but don't be obvious.

The gangsta look.

Up to no good again?

How sweet!

What a way to end the night.

Don't look so happy!

The fun never ends.

Can you say cheese please?

If your mom could see you now!

Making a grand entrance.

All this, and live entertainment, too?

The crowd cheers as "YMCA" is played by request.

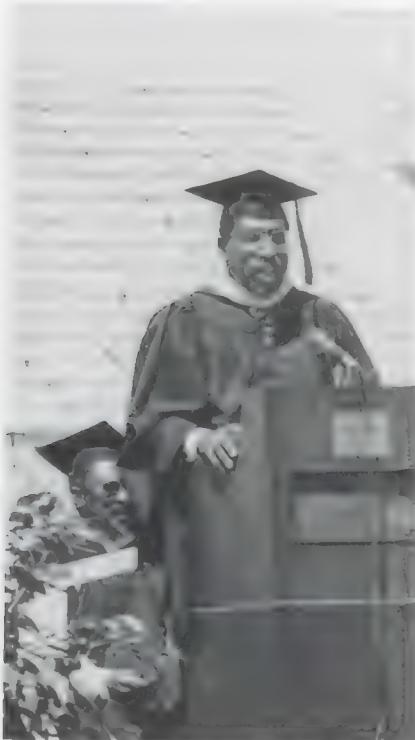

The gang congratulates each other after they receive their diplomas.

The girls patiently wait for their entrance onto the field.

Ben Hauck, the Valedictorian, receives his diploma.

Mr. White gives his words of wisdom to the class of 1994.

I can't believe I actually passed that class!

Burt Preston, Salutatorian, waits for the crowd calm down.

330 Seniors Graduate

The Class Of 1994 held its Commencement at Arlin Field at 3:00 p.m. Not only was the sun shining but so were the smiles of those eagerly awaiting their diplomas.

Obie Ford III, President of the Class of 1994, welcomed his fellow classmates, friends and family. Principal James White offered some advice and a story about a lesson learned. Salutatorian, Burt Preston, spoke for both himself and Valedictorian Ben Hauck.

After the diplomas were presented, the seniors turned their tassels as they turned to another page of their life. The Class of 1994 exited the field as the one hundred forty-eighth class in the history of Mansfield.

Live entertainment.

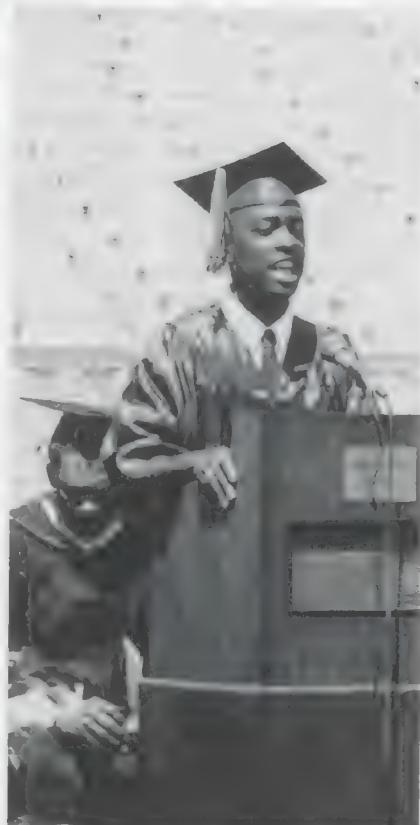

And my mom had doubts!

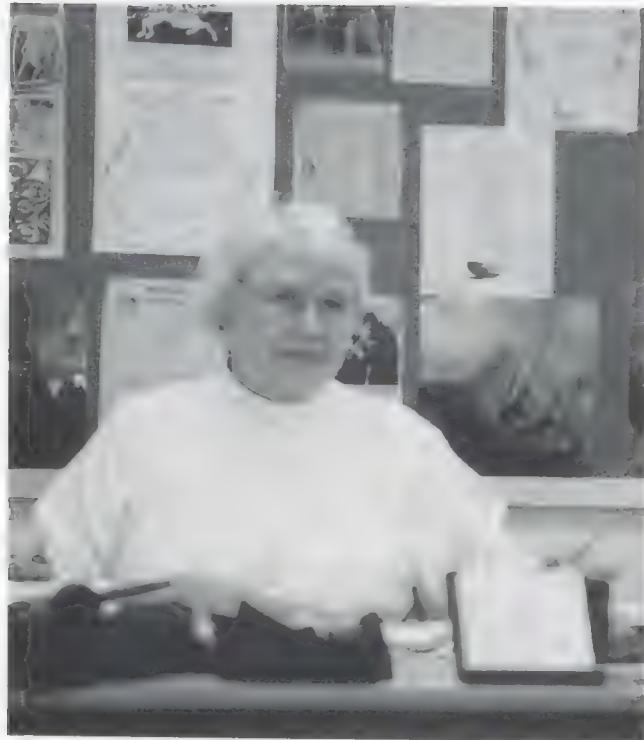

What is next?

Now is the right time.

We couldn't have done it without you, Obie!

Tygers go to State Playoffs

Under the leadership of new head football coach Stan Jefferson, the Tygers football team had an impressive season with a record of eight wins and one loss. Their one loss came against Massillon Washington, a long time rival, whom the Tygers had not played for 11 years. The Tygers then played Massillon again in the State Playoffs, the first time the Tygers had reached the playoffs. The Tygers unfortunately lost the game. On a positive note the Tygers defeated Madison to win the OHC championship. The captains of the team were Effie James, Chioke Bradley, Charles Fountain, and Ellery Bradford. Chioke Bradley and Effie James received MVP, and Chick Barber received the Coaches Award. The Tygers were also led to victory under the coaching staff of Coaches Helbert, Rowe, DeVito, Minard, Shafer, Garverick, Mueller, Jones and Windbigler.

Better Luck Next Year

The 1994 Varsity Baseball Team was coached by Dick Windbigler and Steve Helbert. The team ended their season with a record of five wins and seventeen losses. Among the many talented players, Tom Hager received the Most Valuable Player Award, while Shawn Gray received the Most Improved Player Award. The coaches are hoping for a more successful season next year.

It's So Hard To Say Goodbye

Even though the lady Tygers Softball had a season of five wins and fourteen losses, the Tygers found their real difficulties this year in saying goodbye to five seniors. As they roll into next year they will sure miss the Fab Five, Megan Beilstein, Jenny Mull, Amy King, Chandra Rinehart, and Jenny L. Snavely. They have been a huge part of the Lady Tygers for four solid years now.

The following Lady Tygers received awards: Jenny Mull received 1st team honors, she also had the highest batting average. 2nd team honor and captains award went to Lenny L. Snavely. Chandra Rinehart and Mandy Kiser shared honorable mention. Chandra also got the coaches award. Carrie Borrell received the most improved.
